Renowned Iranian caricaturist gets 1st prize of Yomiuri contest

TEHRAN - An Iranian caricaturist has been awarded the first prize of the international Yomiuri caricature competitions in Tokyo.

Over 10,000 works of caricaturists from 72 countries were sent to the contest and the 55-year-old Iranian caricaturist Kambiz Derambakhsh won the first prize, IRNA reported from Tokyo. Derambakhsh, currently living in Germany, has previously secured the first prize of international caricature competitions of Germany, Belgium and Turkey.

Meanwhile, Homa Ziaie, the nine-year-old Iranian caricaturist also won the special prize in the children's category of Yomiuri contest.

Good
neighborly relations

TEHRAN - Emir of Kuwait Sheikh Jaber al-Ahmad al-Jaber al-Sabah Saturday evening said that after meeting Iranian officials during the recently concluded summit of the Organization of the Islamic Conference, he felt that a new era in good neighborly ties has started.

Speaking at the opening session of the 18th summit of the Persian Gulf Cooperation Council (PGCC) in Kuwait, the emir said that the good neighborly relations are based on brotherhood, mutual respect, non-interference in the internal affairs of others and nonuse of force or threat of force, IRNA reported from Abu Dhabi.

He said that his meetings with Iranian officials in Tehran had left behind good memories and wonderful impression.

The 18th summit of the member countries of PGCC started on Saturday and will continue for three days.

Sarcheshmeh copper complex sets new production record

KERMAN - The 'Sarcheshmeh copper complex' based in Kerman set a new record last Iranian month by producing 10,000 tons of cathode copper and 13,000 tons of anode copper, said the head of the complex's public relations department Hamid Mousavi here Sunday.

He added that the last production record set by the complex were nine tons of cathode copper and 12 tons of anode copper.

He told IRNA that in the first eight months of the current Iranian year 1376 (started March 21) more than 18 million tons of copper ore have been extracted from the mines belonging to the complex, showing a 2.5 percent increase compared to the amount quarried in the previous year.

Mousavi also said that 250,000 tons of concentrated copper and molybdenum have also been produced in the condensation unit of the complex, registering an eight percent rise compared to similar period the previous year.

The Director General of the Sarcheshmeh copper complex, Abdolreza Hashemi-Zadeh said that 100,000 tons of copper are produced the complex and marketed annually.

He also predicted that with the implementation of an extension plan the output of the complex will increase to 250,000 tons by the year 1379 (to start March 21, 2000).

The Sarcheshmeh copper complex began operation in 1981 and is located about 50 km from the city of Rafsanjan in Kerman Province.

The copper smelting and refining plants of the complex are the second largest units of its kind in the world after similar plants in Chile.

Shafei:

20 million tons of cement to be produced annually

SHAHROOD, Semnan - The production of cement in the country will amount to 20 million tons by end of the current Iranian year (March 20, 1998), announced the Industries Minister Gholamreza Shafei here Sunday.

Shafei said during a visit to the Shahrood cement factory that 10 percent of the production could also be exported annually.

He hoped that the Shahrood cement factory will be operational by March.

It is estimated that the daily production capacity in the factory will be 2,300 tons of first and second grade cement. In addition to meeting the demand for cement in France interested in development of economic, trade ties with Iran

TEHRAN - The visiting French Foreign Ministry Director General for the Middle East and North Africa Jean Claude Cousseran here on Sunday called for broadening of Tehran-Paris relations.

In a meeting with Iranian Deputy Foreign Minister for Euro-American Affairs Mortezza Sarmadi, Cousseran said France is interested in developing cooperation between the two countries in economic and cultural areas, IRNA reported.

Green Front calls for protection of wild life in winter

TEHRAN - Iran's Green Front, an environment protection body, in a statement Sunday urged the people and officials to protect animals which abandon their natural habitats in winter due to rain and snow.

The front lauded the recent initiative by officials of Gilan Province Environment Protection Department for encouraging people to help wild animals who seek shelter in villages and towns with the outset of winter.

A large number of wild animals who have left their habitats are spotted near villages and towns in the province searching for food.

In its statement, the Green Front noted that the Environment Protection Organization is expected to provide forage for the animals and also take measures to protect them from being hunted.

20.7 percent of planned development realized by mid-year

TEHRAN - Iran's Plan and Budget Organization here on Sunday announced that some 6,466 development projects with a Rls. 22,500 billion budget were being implemented countrywide in the first half of the current Iranian year (started March 21).

The report by the organization's public relations department mentions the realization of some 20.7 percent of the year's planned development during the first six months, IRNA reported.

Some 1.3 percent of the projects, allocated 2.9 percent of the said budget, progressed according to the schedule. Some 37.9 percent of the projects, allocated 34.4 percent of the budget, were on the average 7.1 percent ahead of schedule and the remaining 60.7 percent with a 6.2 percent share of the total budget were on the average 10 percent behind schedule.

The report also indicates more than 75 percent progress for 29 percent of the projects which were allocated 19 percent of the total budget.

The country during the year's first six months, witnessed the inauguration of 1,194 new national development projects with a budget of Rls. 3,257 billion. The completed projects during the period have on the average lasted about 10 years.

Inspection of more than half of the ongoing projects during the year indicated a 10.2 percent completion rate during the year's first six months. Some imbalances between the scope of the projects and their allocated budgets have been blamed for the delay in implementation of the project, added the report.

Seminar on maturity health of young female population opens

TEHRAN - A seminar on the maturity health of the young female population opened in Tehran on Sunday.

The communication network of the non-governmental organizations (NGO) has sponsored the two-day seminar in coordination with the United Nations Children's Fund (UNICEF).

Issues ranging from the status of the young female population in Iran, the status of young woman in Islam and maturity health to their nutrition at the adolescence age as well as the improvements in Iranian legal code in recent years and the Islamic views concerning the adolescent female are on the agenda of the seminar, IRNA reported.

Secretary of the communication network of the women's non-governmental organization Ms. Faezeh Hashemi said the seminar would work to define the role of social institutions in bringing about a healthy atmosphere for the young women at adolescence age.

She expressed hope that the seminar would serve to prepare a healthy ground for the youth both girls and boys Vice-President and head of the NGO communication network Masoumeh Ebtekar addressing the seminar called for due attention to be paid to the adolescent girls.

She called on the non-governmental organizations to offer proposals to the government on any specific issues including the matters concerning the women and the girls.

Iran, Colombia establish chamber of commerce

TEHRAN - Joint Iran-Colombia chamber of commerce has been established in a ceremony held in Bogota and attended by officials and businessmen of the two countries.

The Iranian Ambassador to Colombia, Hussein Sheikh Zeinoddin and the former Colombian envoy to Tehran, Rafael Canal Sandoball were named heads of the Iran-Colombian chamber of commerce, IRNA reported from New York.

The officials present at the opening ceremony termed the establishment of the chamber of commerce as a step towards promoting commercial relations between the two countries.

Speaking at the opening ceremony, the Director General of the Colombian Chamber of Commerce, H. Jarillo said that many countries like Germany, Japan, Chile, Venezuela and Spain have joint chambers of commerce in Bogota and this plays a very positive and constructive role in promoting and strengthening trade and commercial links between them.

Rafael Canal Sandoball told the audience that in view of the studies conducted and the working experience gained in Iran, he believed that Iran has good economic prospects. In the not too distant future Iran will become an economically powerful country in the region.

Governor general of Van Province arrives for talks

ORUMIYEH, West Azarbaijan - A Turkish political and security delegation led by Governor General of Van Province, Abdul-Qader Sari arrived in Khoj, in this northern province, Sunday.

The 15-member Turkish delegation after arrival met with governors of the cities of Khoj and Salmas and discussed political and security issues, according to IRNA.

Security and border committees of Iranian and Turkish border provinces are held every two months in one of the border provinces of the two countries.

West Azarbaijan Province and Turkey have 488 km of joint border.

Iran's exclusive trade fair concludes its work in Baku

TEHRAN - Iran's sixth exclusive trade fair, opened in Baku on 16 December simultaneously with the birth anniversary of Imam Mahdi (may Allah hasten his reappearance), the 12th imam of the Prophet's (peace be upon him) Household, ended its work Sunday night, IRNA reported from Baku.

Some 60 various companies and industrial units from different Iranian cities and provinces of Tehran (capital of Iran), Tabriz (East Azarbaijan Province), Isfahan (Isfahan Province), Urmia (West Azarbaijan Province), Arak (Central Province), Mashhad (Khorasan Province), Kerman (Kerman Province) and Gilan Province, had actively participated at the trade fair.

Many trade agreements were inked between the Iranian companies and their Azeri partners during the 6-day fair.

TEHRAN - Iran's Transportation and Terminals Organization's representative delegation exchanged views with Kazakh officials on ways and means of expanding cooperation between Iran and Kazakhstan in the area of transportation.

The Iranian delegation is expected to set the date for convention of the third Tehran-Akmola joint transportation commission session at a meeting with the Kazakh head of the commission in Akmola.

for Iranian and Kazakh drivers in either country as well as expansion of the surface transportation of the two nations.

The Iranian delegation is to provide further facilities for Iranian and Kazakh drivers in either country as well as expansion of the surface transportation of the two nations.

The Iranian delegation is expected to set the date for convention of the third Tehran-Akmola joint transportation commission session at a meeting with the Kazakh head of the commission in Akmola.

Foreign minister leaves for Athens

TEHRAN - Foreign Minister Kamal Kharrizi left here for Athens Monday morning to attend the first tripartite meeting of foreign ministers of Iran, Greece and Armenia.

During a one-day meeting the foreign ministers are to explore avenues to promote tripartite cooperation in various economic, commercial and communications fields, IRNA reported.

The ministers are to finalize and sign a letter of understanding on tripartite cooperation which has been prepared and agreed upon previously by deputy foreign ministers of the three countries.

Kharrizi will also discuss bilateral issues and regional cooperation with high-ranking Greek officials.

On Tuesday he is scheduled to lecture on "the Islamic Republic of Iran: the foreign policy priorities" at the Institute of International Relations of the Panteiou University of Athens.

Mohajerani:

Muslim communities in Europe should have parliamentary representation

TEHRAN - Iranian Minister of Culture and Islamic Guidance Attaollah Mohajerani said here on Sunday that the Muslim minorities in the European states should be given representation in the parliament.

In a meeting with Italian Foreign Ministry Secretary-General Umberto Vattani, Mohajerani said the religious minorities are respected in the Islamic Republic of Iran and they have representatives to the Iranian Parliament, IRNA reported.

But, he said, the Muslim communities in the European countries whose total population is ten times as many as that of religious minorities in Iran are deprived of representation at their parliaments.

On the necessity of a dialogue between the religious scholars of Iran and Italy, Mohajerani said Islam and Christianity have common principles which would serve to bring about understanding and friendship between the two nations.

Vattani expressed his country's interest in developing ties with the Islamic Republic of Iran and said Iranian officials are working to enhance the bilateral ties to the optimum level.

He appreciated the attention being paid by Iranian officials to the religious minorities living in Iran and called for cooperation between the Muslims and the Christians.

Vattani hoped that at the end of the turbulent century, the two nations of Iran and Italy would present a unique model of friendship to the world through reliance on the lofty religious and human values.

Interior minister questioned in Majlis over controversial rally

TEHRAN - The open session of Majlis here on Sunday focused on the controversy surrounding a rally held on October 21 by the Islamic union of the university students and graduates in front of Tehran University.

The deputy from Dezful, Mehdi Darvish-Zadeh, posed several questions regarding the issue to the Interior Minister, Abdullah Nouri, whose ministry had issued the permission for the rally, IRNA reported.

The deputy pointed to the speeches at the rally which according to him were essentially anti-constitution and anti-religious, adding that in light of the special circumstances prevailing in the country, the rally should not have been authorized by the Interior Ministry.

He mentioned the recently concluded summit of the Organization of the Islamic Conference and the U.S. conspiracies to prevent its success as major factors which had made the period especially sensitive for the ministry.

The violation is being looked into by the commission on regulations for political parties, said Nouri.

The minister then stressed the importance of respecting the law on the part of all political organizations in the country including the opponents of the controversial student organization.

He expressed dismay at

Government plans to rejuvenate disappearing handicrafts

YAZD - The government has plans to support and bring back to life those items of handicrafts which are fast disappearing, said head of the board of directors and Managing Director of the Handicrafts Organization, Ali Danesh-Monfared.

The government has earmarked Rls. 2.5 billion for the next Iranian year (to start March 21, 1998), he told IRNA, adding the budget for the current year was only Rls. 300 million.

He said embroidery with mirror is among handicrafts which needs more support and attention.

Danesh-Monfared said that Dls. 5.8 million worth of handicrafts have been exported in the first seven months of the current Iranian year.

Iran produces a variety of about 150 types of handicrafts, he pointed out.

The increasing number of factories producing machine-made carpets is a threat to hand-woven carpets.

He added that a great number of families earn their living through weaving carpets.

Promotion of modern industries has turned attention away from indigenous handicrafts as a result of which some handicrafts are ceasing to exist.

The minister further said that preliminary production in Al-Mahdi aluminum factory in Bandar Abbas has started, adding that the factory will play a significant role in boosting aluminum exports.

With the completion of the first phase of Al-Mahdi factory and utilization of raw materials of Jajrom aluminum, production at the factory will amount to over 100,000 tons annually.
