

Rewey Belle Inglis Award

Call for Nominations

Each year, the National Council of Teachers of English (NCTE) recognizes an Outstanding Woman in English Education with an award named for Rewey Belle Inglis, the first woman president of NCTE. All women considered for this honor will have exhibited outstanding professional service relating to the role and image of women in the profession and in NCTE. The Inglis Award recipient will have shown excellence in scholarship/research, teaching, and service related to English language arts. The Inglis Award committee, made up of members of the Women in Literacy and Life Assembly of NCTE (WILLA), is charged with selecting the recipient of the Rewey Belle Inglis Award. Please send a letter of nomination detailing how the nominee's qualifications match the award criteria and a copy of the nominee's curriculum vitae to:

Dr. Lynne Alvine, Inglis Award Chair
110 Leonard Hall, 121 North Walk
Indiana University of Pennsylvania
Indiana, PA 15705-1094

For full consideration, nominations should arrive by June 1. The recipient will be notified of her selection and will be honored at the CEE Luncheon at the annual NCTE Convention.
