Summary

I have worked with Sherri Blevins over the past year in our department and feel confident in my assessment of her character. Sherri has been a wonderful addition to our staff. With an understanding ear and a helpful hand, Sherri has been instrumental in helping our department endure budget cuts and restructuring.

Erick J. Kneubuehl states, "As the Associate Director in Student Activities, I have had the pleasure of working with Sherri over the last year. She has proven to be invaluable to the department and to me in supporting all that we do for Virginia Tech. With over 150 programs, 550 student organizations, and many different services, we keep Sherri extremely busy. No matter how busy she is, Sherri is always smiling and happy."

As an employee, Sherri has exemplified the characteristics of a dedicated and competent colleague. She is consistent in her support and takes initiative on major projects. Through her dedication to self-improvement, Sherri has worked part time to complete her bachelor's degree.
