Summary

Delbert Jones is an exemplary community service volunteer. Mr. Jones has volunteered to judge local fairs for many years, including the Giles County Elementary and Middle School Science Fairs, the Governor's School Science Fair, the Regional Science Fair and the Junior Academy of Sciences. Most of these science societies require the judges to read each research paper prior to judging the science experiment. Mr. Jones had at one time almost fifty research papers to read to prepare for the events.

Mr. Jones is presently a member of the Veterinary College's Staff Association, which meets monthly to consider college governance that relates to staff concerns. Related to this appointment, Mr. Jones represents the veterinary college staff by serving on several search committees. Additionally, Mr. Jones is a Staff Senator representing the staff of Veterinary Medicine on Staff Senate.
