

Staff Employee of the Week

Kim Raymond

JOB TITLE: Budget Manager

HOME DEPARTMENT: Psychology

COLLEGE OR VP AREA: College of Science

NOMINATED FOR: President's Award for Excellence

NOMINATED BY: Martha Ann Bell, Associate Professor

VIRGINIA TECH HIRE DATE: April 1, 1986

SUMMARY

Kim Raymond is the Budget Manager in the Department of Psychology. For over 10 years she has been the sole person overseeing the day-to-day transactions in all of the operating, salary, and sponsored program accounts for the department. The excellence with which Kim does her job is found not only in the accuracy and timeliness of her work. It is also found in her dedication to helping faculty in the department and the pride she takes in her job.

Kim's efficiency in the details of grants management is well-known and highly respected by the Psychology faculty. Her perseverance in assisting faculty in spur of the moment grant-related situations is legendary within the department. Her department relies on her because of her commitment to her job and her wealth of experience. In summary, Kim's dedication has enhanced the scientific productivity of the Psychology faculty.