SUMMARY

Kathy has a larger than life personality and a dedicated work ethic that are two characteristics that make for an infectious combination. She joined the Residence Life team over a year ago, but has emerged as a superstar and revered as a long time colleague. Her contributions to making her job responsibilities efficient have made the overall process of our daily work a fun and rewarding experience. Kathy's bubbly personality adds to the warm and friendly environment she creates with students and staff. We wanted her to know we take pride in her as she takes pride in all that she does from administrative work to her passions of gardening.
