

Staff Employee of the Week

David Mellichamp

NAME: David Mellichamp

JOB TITLE: Electronics Technician Supervisor

HOME DEPARTMENT: Virginia Tech Transportation Institute

COLLEGE OR VP AREA: Vice President for Research

NOMINATED FOR: President's Award for Excellence

NOMINATED BY: William Schaudt

VIRGINIA TECH HIRE DATE: September 25, 2003

SUMMARY

David was nominated for the President's Award for Excellence for his impressive job performance over the past six years at VTTI. His job duties entail the design, fabrication, and installation of hardware and technology for all projects at VTTI. His exemplary work dedication, and fun-spirited personality have been key components towards the success of numerous projects, further supporting the Virginia Tech reputation of research excellence. David is excellent at planning and executing each job that comes his way. His experience allows him to make excellent time management decisions thus making him very reliable; you can count on him to get the job done. He offers much more than just experience, dedication, and reliability around the workplace. He also projects a cheerful, humorous, and fun-spirited personality that is contagious to all his fellow workers. This trait is constant, day in and day out, and is one that is admired and appreciated at VTTI. He represents all the characteristics of a driven, hard-working, and reliable member of Virginia Tech.