SUMMARY

Sherry has served the University since 1967 in various positions on the Virginia Tech campus. She is currently employed by the University Purchasing Department. She is the backbone for users in the HokieMart purchasing system. She is involved with HokieMart from the point of our instructional manuals to assisting with our purchases. She creates and edits The Cart which involves keeping current on the latest programming changes for this system.

Sherry is always on top of these changes and she handles many calls from distressed users of this system. She is always understanding, polite, and very knowledgeable. Sherry exhibits the highest service standards and is a true asset to the University.
