SUMMARY

Laura is an outstanding member of the Department of Biological Systems Engineering. Particularly noteworthy is her ability to work well with faculty, staff, graduate students, and undergraduate students. Her ability to coordinate the activities of these groups of people and guide them toward the successful completion of the project or task is outstanding and illustrates her strong leadership abilities. Laura applies her excellent communication skills, steady temperament, strong technical knowledge, and common sense in working with others to complete projects. She regularly works for and with a variety of people, both inside and outside the department. Laura leads by example in how she works with others. She is always respectful of others and others trust and appreciate her judgment, knowledge, and skills. BSE department members regularly seek her advice about equipment, facilities, vehicles, and more because they know she is knowledgeable and always willing to help, not just by providing information and advice, but by pitching in to do the work.
