SUMMARY

Sharon currently serves as the fiscal administrator for VT Engage: The Community Learning Collaborative. Founded on a core belief that student-community interaction is essential to transforming students into global citizens, the center is dedicated to helping students, faculty, and staff create and sustain mutually beneficial partnerships. She is a champion for service and daily demonstrates the university's motto of Ut Prosim.

Sharon's tireless logistical support enables countless student volunteers to contribute to diverse engagement efforts of the university. She continues to excel in day-to-day operations that keep a highly dynamic, complex center nimble as it responds to the diverse needs of the university and community. She designs systems and processes that create seamless opportunities for students, faculty, and community leaders to connect and stay connected. She serves as an exemplary ambassador for the center, Outreach and International Affairs, and the university.
