

Staff Employee of the Week

Julie Wesel

As a Virginia Tech employee for 32 years, Julie Wesel currently serves as the systems manager for Hokie Passport Auxiliary. Her colleagues recognize her for her outstanding customer service, eagerness to help others, and willingness to share her wealth of knowledge and experiences.

“One of her strongest characteristics is the ability to get along well with others, which is strictly a natural action for her because she truly cares about others,” said Jean Smoot, project coordinator. “Julie has the most incredible customer service of anyone I have ever worked with.”

In addition to Wesel’s commitment and devotion to her department, she also donates time and effort to other parts of the Virginia Tech community. She has participated in Virginia Tech sports as a player for the VT Women’s Tennis Team, and is an active member of Virginia Tech’s booster club, Hokie Hardwood Club. Her friends and colleagues admire her dedication towards all Virginia Tech activities, as she commonly attends many Virginia Tech games and community events.

“She has touched so many over the years through her commitment to her work and her dedication to the greater Virginia Tech community,” said Tammy Wolfe, customer service manager.
